On September 15, 2001, [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] telephone number [REDACTED] was interviewed telephonically. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature and purpose of the interview, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

b6

b7C

[REDACTED] has been employed by TGI FRIDAYS, [REDACTED] telephone number [REDACTED] as a server for approximately one month. [REDACTED] was scheduled to work on Tuesday, September 11, 2001, and he reported to work at about 10:30 a.m. to prepare for the restaurant's opening at 11:00 a.m. [REDACTED] stated that near the end of the lunch rush, at about 1:30 p.m. or 2:00 p.m., he waited on four people at table #59.

b6

b7C

[REDACTED] described the following four individuals that he waited on at table #59:

b6

b7C

1) An adult male, approximately mid-30's, 5'11", 170 pounds, olive complexion, clean cut, with an accent; unknown male #1 (UM1).

2) Adult male, early 30's, 5'9", large build, dark, short hair, olive complexion, with a thick accent; unknown male #2 (UM2).

3) Adult female, late 20's, 5'6", 140 pounds, brown hair in a pony tail, possibly wearing eyeglasses; unknown female (UF1).

4) Juvenile male, approximately 7 years old.

[REDACTED] stated UM1 was introduced as [REDACTED] (phonetic) or [REDACTED] (phonetic). UM2 introduced himself with an American first name, but [REDACTED] could not recall the name. UF1 was initially introduced as [REDACTED] which appeared to be a joke to [REDACTED] because she was then introduced as [REDACTED].

b6

b7C

[REDACTED] stated UM2 did most of the talking and he appeared to be "very excited", as if he were celebrating something. UM 2 proceeded to order a variety of appetizers for the group, including mozzarella sticks, nachos, and potato skins with no bacon. The group did not order any alcoholic beverages and no one in the group was smoking cigarettes. [REDACTED] added table #59 is in a no smoking section of the restaurant. [REDACTED] stated UM2 jokingly remarked that he was not sure when he was going to be able to eat again after he had finished this meal. UM2 also remarked to [REDACTED] that one of the individuals sitting at his table was his cousin.

b6

b7C

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated UM2 was the only individual to order a dinner, a Jack Daniels steak. The other individuals claimed they were full from all the appetizers that were ordered. UM2 encouraged his dining companions to order whatever they wanted because he was buying the meal. [REDACTED] stated his companions were joking with UM2 because UM2 rarely bought meals for them.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated that at some point after UM2 was served his steak, he called [REDACTED] over to the table. UM2 asked [REDACTED] to bring his steak back into the kitchen and keep it warm because UM2 had to "leave for a little while". UM told [REDACTED] that he had to leave for about 30 minutes.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated once UM2 left, UM1 told [REDACTED] UM2 left to pick up his son. Also, while UM2 was gone, UM1 and the juvenile male walked around the restaurant and looked out the windows. Soon after UM2 left, UF1 asked [REDACTED] where the nearest AMTRAK was located. [REDACTED] replied he believed the nearest AMTRAK was in Boston and UF1 then left the table to use the pay phone at the restaurant. [REDACTED] stated the only pay phone in the restaurant is located at the front of the restaurant and [REDACTED] personally observed UF1 talking on the telephone and writing notes on a napkin for approximately 20 minutes.

[REDACTED] stated during this time, UM1 asked [REDACTED] for change for the pay phone, which was given to UF1.

After about 30 minutes, UM2 returned to the restaurant with a juvenile male, approximately 8 years old, with a heavy build. [REDACTED] went to the kitchen and retrieved UM2's steak and brought it back to the table.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] recalled asking the group where they were trying to go. Someone in the group replied that they needed to get to Florida and they needed to go right away because they had to work the next day. [REDACTED] overheard UM2 state if they could not find transportation to Florida, they should just buy a car because they were going to buy a car anyway. [REDACTED] thought this statement was unusual because he also overheard UM2 state that he owned a Land Rover.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated the total bill came to approximately $67.00 and UM2 paid for the meal with a $100.00 bill.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated he received a good tip, which was $20.00.

[REDACTED] advised the restaurant did not maintain any video surveillance cameras. [REDACTED] did not see what type of car the group entered once they left the restaurant.

MAJOR CASE 182

Synopsis: Results of investigation at Ashland, Massachusetts.

Details: On Thursday, September 20, 2001, Ashland Police Detective [REDACTED] was telephonically contacted about reported activity that occurred at the ASHLAND [REDACTED] Ashland, [REDACTED] on Tuesday, September 11, 2001. Det. [REDACTED] advised he had received information and spoke to several witnesses regarding the activities of the employees at the [REDACTED] celebrating, singing, dancing and cheering during the hours following the terrorist attack at the World Trade Center, New York City. Det. [REDACTED] advised the employees were Middle Eastern. Det. [REDACTED] advised he spoke to neighboring business owners who witnessed the activities and spoke to individuals who had purchased gas and while parked at the pumps, a symbol, a triangle inside a circle, was drawn on their vehicles. The symbol was drawn in the dirt on the vehicles by the employee who pumped the gas. The symbol was also painted on a storage bin located behind the station. Det. [REDACTED] advised he had yet to investigate the complaints. Det. [REDACTED] was advised the FBI was going to respond to the station and interview the employees. Det. [REDACTED] declined an offer to accompany the FBI to assist in the interviews.

On Thursday, September 20, 2001, SA [REDACTED] and SA [REDACTED] responded to the [REDACTED] and interviewed the three employees: [REDACTED] dob [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (cell) [REDACTED] dob [REDACTED] SSAN [REDACTED]

All three advised they were at work on 9/11/01, but denied participating in the reported activities and advised they were loyal Americans. They advised they did not get along with some of their business neighbors and believed these neighbors wanted to cause them problems because they were Lebanese. All three subjects advised they were Christians and not Muslims. The triangle circle symbol was found painted on the rear storage bin and appeared to be painted over. All three advised they did not know who painted it, but [redacted] advised he painted over it after being advised by a neighbor that it may cause concern for some people. All three advised they did not know the meaning of the symbol. All three subjects advised they were American citizens but no one had any documentation. All three were told that the agents would return the following day with the INS, and it was requested that all three have documentation to support their claim of citizenship and legal presence in the United States.

On Friday, September 21, 2001, SA [redacted] and INS agent [redacted] responded to the [redacted] and spoke with [redacted] and [redacted]. [redacted] produced their Lebanese passports. [redacted] provided his INS "green card" # [redacted] issued [redacted] expires [redacted]. [redacted] advised he applied for his green card in 1999 but had yet to receive it. He pointed out the card number, # [redacted] and INS stamp, that was written/stamped on a page in his passport. Agent [redacted] advised the two-year time period [redacted] has waited to receive his green card was unusual but possible. The only identification [redacted] provided was an INS permit, issued in Miami, Florida on [redacted]. The permit indicated [redacted] applied for an "asylum hearing," and that the permit expired on 12/31/99. [redacted] acknowledged he lost the hearing and was in illegal status. Agent [redacted] advised he would return at a later date and deal with [redacted] situation. All three subjects again denied being involved in any type of celebration and ensured the agents that they were loyal Americans.

On Thursday, September 20, 2001, SA [redacted] spoke to [redacted] owner of [redacted]. [redacted] is located on the side street, across from the [redacted]. [redacted] advised that he and his employee [redacted] observed all three employees celebrating, dancing and singing, during the day of 9/11/01. [redacted] identified [redacted] as the individual who drew the symbol on the vehicles, as well as, being the most vocal during the celebration. [redacted] acknowledged a dislike for the employees of the [redacted] due to their rudeness and treatment of the public who patronize their business.

MAJOR CASE 182
OO:NY

Synopsis: Provide NY with additional information regarding evidence collected during the PENTTBOM investigation.

Reference: 265A-NY-280350-OUT Serial 2627

Enclosure(s): Three 1B folders labeled: MAIN-1B-1B-0086, SUB-1B-1B-3283 and SUB-1B-1B-473/478.

Details: It was requested, in above referenced EC, that the following 1B items have a further explanation for the discovery
phase of the Moussaoui trial:

Main 1B 1B-0086 was initially placed in the main file and was subsequently removed from the main file and placed in the Sub 1B file. This item is currently located in Sub-1B-1B-712.
This item is described as a black leather carry-on bag with baggage claim tag #DL622843 and 3DL0646 with the name [REDACTED] [REDACTED] A 1B folder was shipped to the NY Division on 02/01/2002.
There is no FD-302 or Rapid Start lead associated with this evidence. (Attached is the FD-192.)

The circumstances surrounding the seizure of this item are as follows: WFO received a call from a woman who's husband found a black carry on bag at National Airport in the parking lot. He picked up the bag and took it to his home. The man returned to the airport while his wife telephoned the FBI.
Contained in the bag was fabric that one would use to make drapes or clothes.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

Main 1B 1B-1079 was a mistake. Evidence does not exist for this 1B number, it was strictly a typing error.

Sub 1B 1B-0473 and 1B-0478 are the same piece of evidence, two sets of D.C. license tags. It was inadvertently entered twice and placed into the Penttbom file. The evidence is in no way related to the Penttbom case. The evidence is a part of a corruption case, 194B-WF-222699. (Attached is 194B-WF-222699, serial 8, which details the collection of this item and the FD-192.)

Sub 1B 1B-3283 is a Dell Computer that was voluntarily turned over to the FBI by MCI WorldCom. MCI turned over another computer that was entered into evidence as 1B3282. The computer (1B3283) was used by an MCI contract employee, [REDACTED]. On 09/11/2001, after news spread of the World Trade Center, [REDACTED] began celebrating in his workspace. The FD-302 regarding the seizure of the computer was provided to the NY Division as folder 1B3283. The harddrive was imaged by WFO CART and entered into evidence at the Tyson's Corner RA as 1B3649. The original computer was returned to MCI WorldCom. (Attached are the FD-192s for both computers and the subsequent imaged harddrives, Rapid Start lead WF7732, FD-302 regarding the interview at MCI and seizure of the two computers, FD-302 stating that the harddrives were imaged, and CART's FD-302.)
